Tuesday, August 29, 2006

Atlanta based men and women's clothing store H. Stockton announces the October opening of its flagship store at 1180 Peachtree Street in Midtown.

The new 4,000-square-foot store, at the corner of 14th and Peachtree streets, will cater to a diverse and growing customer base in Midtown, while continuing to serve existing customers who appreciate elegant, tailored clothing. Store hours will be Monday to Friday from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

"We are always looking to provide additional conveniences to our customers," said Chip Stockton, president of H. Stockton. "Our new Midtown location allows us to become more accessible to our current clientele, while capturing consumers looking to update and expand their wardrobes."

Showcasing the new classics -- the finest in elegant business and casual clothing. The store will feature designer labels including: Vineyard Vines, Samuelsohn, Hickey Freeman, Canali, Barbour Heritage, Bills Khaki's, Audrey Talbott and Alden Shoes.

To personalize the shopping experience, the Midtown location will offer custom tailoring and delivery to nearby offices, residences and hotels. And in keeping with H. Stockton's personal service mantra, the store will also feature high-end services including private wardrobe consultations, made-to-measure clothing and seasonal trunk shows.

H. Stockton's expanded floor plan in Midtown will feature a Robert Talbott store-within-a-store and the largest selections in the Southeast.

"The Talbott family built their company in a personal way with a customer approach very much like our own business," said Court Stockton, Vice President of H. Stockton. "They are necktie aficionados known for setting industry precedents. Their apparel and accessories complement the classic yet fashion-forward mix represented in our stores."

Atlanta architecture firm Duane Stone & Associates completed the store's interior with a simple, modern look. Architectural features include polished concrete floors, accents of dark brown and black wood, and an expansive wall of glass overlooking 14th Street.

Classic clothier H. Stockton has become the Southeast's trusted choice for elegant men's and women's business and casual clothing. Founded on the belief that clothing should never appear more important than the person wearing it, H. Stockton's offerings blend quality, comfort and style.
